Itinerary*

Day 1 Wednesday, August 13

Departure | Arrive Mexico City | Metropolitan Cathedral

Depart early morning on a flight from Dallas, TX to Mexico City. Upon arrival, you'll be greeted by your local tour manager and board a private motor coach to begin the journey with a daily rosary followed by a group lunch. Visit and celebrate Mass at the Cathedral of the Assumption of Mary, the oldest and largest Cathedral in the Americas. Considered the focus of Mexican cultural heritage, the Cathedral remains the seat of the Archdiocese of Mexico City. There are many spectacular chapels in addition to the Crypt of the Archbishops, where every Archbishop of Mexico City has been buried, including the first Archbishop of Mexico City, Juan de Zumarraga, entrusted by the Virgin Mary to witness the miraculous revelation of Juan Diego's tilma in 1648. Gather for a welcome dinner and overnight in Mexico City.

Day 2 Thursday, August 14

Teotihuacan Pyramids | Basilica of Guadalupe

This morning visit to the Teotihuacan Pyramids. The Pyramids are among the most iconic and well-preserved pyramids in Mexico and the world. The site is known for its beautiful murals, extensive residential complexes, and the Avenue of the Dead, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage site and is a significant archaeological and cultural landmark in Mexico. Following lunch on your own, return to Mexico City for an afternoon visit and tour of the most celebrated Marian apparition site in the world, the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Tour the basilica and the surrounding areas, gaining more insights into the life of Juan Diego and the miraculous story of conversion, healing, and the lasting sign of Our Lady's fidelity to the Mexican people. After Mass, along with time for confession and prayer, return to hotel for overnight in Mexico City.

Day 3 Friday, August 15

Chalco Children's Village

Journey to Chalco Children's Village for Girls. Here, the Sisters of Mary provide education to young girls who come from families in extreme poverty and despair. Celebrate Mass and enjoy lunch with the joyful young girls who truly are the miracles of Guadalupe. After lunch, learn about the Sisters' mission at Chalco, and enjoy the opportunity to meet and interact with the girls. Return to the hotel for dinner and time to meet as a group to share reflections from the day. Overnight in Mexico City.

Day 4 Saturday, August 16

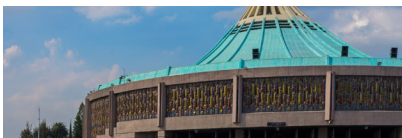

Puebla

Explore the stunning Santo Domingo Church with its famous Rosary Chapel. Visit the Church of San Francisco to see the incorrupt body of Blessed Sebastian de la Aparicio. Celebrate Mass at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception before returning to Mexico City for a farewell dinner and overnight.

Day 5 Sunday, August 17

Church of the Holy Family | Walking Tour | Departure Home

After a final breakfast and hotel check-out, visit the Church of the Holy Family to celebrate Mass and view the remains of Blessed Miguel Agustin Pro, a martyr of the Cristero War. Enjoy lunch on your own, followed by a walking tour of Mexico City's sites. Depart for the Mexico City airport and the return flight back to Dallas, TX.
